Proposed System Features

1. Students can create an account and make their profiles without any cost.

2. In the profile section student can sets his/her skills, academic qualifications, time or day when they able to do a job.

3. The company has to registration for creates a post. They can sees the profile of the students by searching or filtering their skills and can directly contact by calling to their mobile number or can message to the student.

4. The student also can apply for the job which will be posted by the company.

5. One student also can message another student if need any help or if they want to work on a team.